

Intolerable

“Awake to righteousness and do not sin” (1 Corinthians 15:34)

Intolerable... That is an old school word. It has been a while since I have heard it used in a conversation. Intolerable means it's unable to be endured, unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

There you have it. That is why we don't hear that word anymore. We are told now that tolerance of any and everything makes us a good person. So only a heartless person would be intolerable of anything.

Before you get fired up and before we start thinking about other groups and other people who demand to be tolerated and their life choices celebrated... what about you? What about me?

We tend to be all for tolerance when it comes to our lives as we overlook and tolerate our personal sin. Why do we do this? Well... we tolerate some of our sins because we enjoy them and we want to excuse it and ignore it.

But have we thought about the negative effects this has on our lives spiritually and physically?

Sadly, as we overlook our sin it can cause us to have a calloused heart and we become blind to our sin. In addition, the sins we ignore continue to have greater and greater consequences.

What sin needs to be identified and dealt with in your life? What needs to change in your daily walk as a follower of Christ. Know this... You can not change what you are willing to tolerate. (Stop and read that last sentence again)

Stop delaying repentance, stop turning a blind eye to sin in your life. Pray God would make the sin in your life intolerable.

Begin enjoying not the sin, but the freedom from no longer being a slave to it. Enjoy His offer of grace and forgiveness.

In Christ,

Pastor Chris

"Having Fun in the Kitchen"

Have you ever worked in the kitchen at MTP church? I am sure many of you have and many of you have not. But I just have to confess: It was fun in the kitchen at MTP these last few weeks as we prepared and boxed up meals.

One week dessert was strawberry cobbler and....as one of the empty pans was handed to me, I picked up a plastic spoon ( you might guess) and started tasting... It was so sweet and so good!

But, the real fun was working and serving along side MTP staff and all the other faithful volunteers. I was able to forget about "social distancing" for just a little while. Everyone worked so hard and was exhausted at the end of the day. I do not know what other staff and volunteers might say about working in the kitchen at MTP. But for me it was fun! In fact, it was awesome! It was awesome because I saw God in the kitchen at MTP.....

Mt. Pleasant Men's Group ...

Greetings from MTP Men. Who is ready to get back to church? Thank you to everyone who have been keeping things going at MTP. We have been blessed by online worship, drive in services, Wednesday night meals and Zoom meetings for our youth. Our Wildlife Banquet was a huge success with over $5300 raised to help folks in the community as well as the FLC. We received a generous gift of a gas grill on wheels from Connie Sands and Luann Craven in memory of their dad David Hedgecock. MTP Men cordially invite all the Men in the church to come and join our group that was started in the 1960's and still going strong. Congratulations to all our graduates, may the Lord guide and be with you as you move forward. We will be getting back together soon as we have a lot of things we would still like to do in 2020. MTP Men will hold their next meeting on Sunday June 7th at 7am in the banquet hall. Come and enjoy a great breakfast and fellowship. Stay safe everyone, Greg Moore

MORNING TIME

One day this week share a verse about love. If your teen has time before heading off to school, ask if they could pray with you (it's okay if they don't or say no). Pray for them to see opportunities to encourage a friend or teacher at school. Focus on reminding them that part of our faith is choosing to speak and act in love.

MEAL TIME

Being together at the table is a natural time to share stories from the day. Try to specifically ask for stories about how words were used to make a difference positively or negatively. This is also a great chance to share your own story as a way to be vulnerable with your teen. No matter what situation is shared, thank them for telling you, and remind them that they have power to make a difference.

THEIR TIME

The next time your teen talks about social media, pay attention to how they feel about social media, and take note of who they may be following. Ask questions about why they follow certain people and what is interesting about them. This is a great way to show your teen that you are interested in what they're interested in.

BED TIME

This week make a list of some moments where your teen used their words to encourage someone else. Then one night this week, give your teen that list and share with them how you are proud of them. This is a great way to remind your teen that they can make a difference in the lives of others simply by being encouraging with their words.
