

The Spirit is a Generous Gift

As we conclude our "Super Natural" series focusing on the gift of the gifts of the Spirit, it got me to thinking about what it means to be Christ-like. It seems that all throughout the Bible God is giving... giving patience, love, mercy, grace and His one and only Son. Jesus gave of His time, presence, power, compassion and very life.

As we look at the spiritual gifts given to us, we should be inspired to use them generously in response to God's generosity towards us. As many of you know, Charles Swindoll is one of my favorite preachers to listen to. I want to share a clip from one of his sermons where he discusses the joy and blessings that come with a generous spirit.

It seems that all throughout the Bible God is giving... giving patience, love, mercy, grace and His one and only Son. Jesus gave of His time, presence, power, compassion and very life.

The Christians in the Macedonian churches were servants who gave without any concern about receiving the credit for their generosity. But Paul reveals something else remarkable about the nature of their gift:

Now I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters, what God in his kindness has done through the churches in Macedonia. They are being tested by many troubles, and they are very poor. But they are also filled with abundant joy, which has overflowed in rich generosity. For I can testify that they gave not only what they could afford, but far more. And they did it of their own free will. 2 CORINTHIANS 8:1-3

When they gave, they "overflowed" in the process. Yet that cascade of generosity didn't spring from an overflow of material treasures but from a deep well of spiritual riches! You can be materially rich, but destitute spiritually. Conversely, yours can be an experience of extreme material poverty, but you can give out of an abundance of spiritual joy. I love that!

Moreover, the application of such generosity of spirit applies to so much more than monetary gifts. It includes giving ourselves . . . our time and energy, our care and compassion, even our belongings on occasion. What a need there is for this trait within the ranks of humanity today! And yet how rare it is!

Let's stop clutching our possessions so tightly that we wind up living most of our days with white knuckles. Instead, let's begin to relax our grip on our possessions and consider how some of the things we have could be used to bless someone else. Would you join me in prayerfully asking the Lord to make you into an open-handed, great-hearted, generous giver? Today would be an ideal day to start!

Amen Chuck! That will preach!

In Christ, Pastor Chris

Mt Pleasant Elder's Update
May 2022

At the time of scribing this newsletter the elders were preparing and praying for the upcoming small group leadership training. The two classes, scheduled to take place on April 24th and May 1st, are being provided to equip each small group leader with insight on elder support, resource considerations, leader responsibilities, and functions to fulfill our church's mission and vision in our small groups.

As part of our study of an Alexander Strauch book entitled Acts 20: Fierce Wolves are Coming; Guard the Flock, the elders recently discussed the persecution that Christians have endured since Jesus' ascension. We recognize that persecution still exists around the world today. Even though we tend to be shielded by the martyrdom that is taking place elsewhere, we do recognize the many ways that the church is being singled out for following Jesus. A profession of faith can even be considered "hate speech" by certain people. Just as Scripture describes the hate and rejection of Jesus Christ during his incarnation, we need to be aware that we are likely to endure the world's hate and rejection as well. Strauch says "our knowledge of Scripture and our faith will determine our attitude and responses to such persecution." Peter describes our response to such persecution well in 1 Peter 5:6-9:

6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time. 7 Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. 8 Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour. 9 Resist him, standing firm in the faith, because you know that the family of believers throughout the world is undergoing the same kind of sufferings. 1 Peter 5:6-9

What can we do to prepare for persecution?

1) humble ourselves before the Lord; 2) cast our anxieties on Him; 3) be alert and sober minded; 4) remain firm in our faith; and 4) continue to be bold and unashamed of the gospel...to name a few.

Please keep our fellow believers around the world in your prayers as persecution persists and be assured that Jesus promises that his Church will prevail:

10 And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast. 11 To him be the power for ever and ever. Amen. 1 Peter 5:10-11

COFFEE WITH STARBUCK - 4TH THURSDAY OF EACH MONTH

In Mark 5:25-34 a sick woman reaches out to Jesus and has a life transforming experience. Her story has caused me to think about how I reach out to Jesus. There is a big difference in this story between the crowd and the woman. Many in the crowd must have touched Jesus that day. They accidentally jostled Him, and their garments brushed against His. But they merely "thronged" about Jesus, so nothing happened. The woman did more than "throng," she actually reached out and touched Him. It was a different kind of contact. As a result she was instantly healed.

Look for a moment at the touch of this sick woman. It was the touch of desperation. She had been ill for twelve years. She had sought the help of many physicians and had spent all her savings. But instead of getting better, she got worse. Her condition seemed hopeless. So she reached out to Jesus as a last resort.

It was a purposeful touch. The woman was incurably ill, and she was tired of her condition. More than anything else in the whole world she wanted to be well and strong. So she intentionally slipped through the crowd, made her way right up to the Master, stretched out her hand and touched His garment. There was nothing accidental about that touch, she had made her plan and she carried it through willfully.

It was also the touch of faith. The woman believed that if she could only touch the Master's garment, she would be healed. Perhaps she had watched Him reach out His hand on other occasions, touch the sick, and heal them. So she was determined to make contact. And Jesus, perceiving the woman's faith, said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

Are we among the "throngers" or the "touchers?" Do we merely brush against the Savior casually and go on our way the same as before? Or do we really touch Him and rise in newness of life?

In Christ - Pastor Tim.

It seems like everyone is sending thoughts and prayers nowadays, doesn't it? Just because this idea is common doesn't mean it's comfortable. Haven't we all wondered if we're even getting this prayer thing, right? After all, is there even a wrong and right way to pray? This month, discuss with your teen the simple power of honesty and authenticity when it comes to our personal experience of prayer.

MEMORY VERSE

"Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done."

Philippians 4:6, NLT

Morning Time

As your teen starts their day, encourage them with these words: "Hey, I love you. But I also really like you and the fact that we get to be a family together."

Meal Time

At a meal this week, ask your teen: "What was the best part of your day? What was the worst?" (Make sure you answer the questions too.)

Their Time

Be available and accessible for when they want to talk.

Bed Time

Pray for your teen: "Help [name of child] to find their way to talk to you, honestly and consistently. And help me to model that as well."

How to teach your children about Jesus!

Read: each night take time to read Bible stories or do a daily devotional with your children

Pray: start first by praying yourself for God to guide you to help teach your child to pray. Start a prayer routine with your child. "Tell them to talk to Jesus just like talking to a friend. Tell Him what is in your heart."

Lead by example: The saying "Practice what you preach" is so true in this lesson. Be a Godly example for your kids and others.

Talk about Jesus: Talk about Jesus often. Show your children all that God has made. When they act out tell them Jesus is watching and he doesn't like when you do that. Let them know that Jesus is always there for them.

Get involved in Church: Let your children see how important it is to not only go to church but to be involved and to serve. Show them that we help and do things for others. Be the Light you want them to be for others.

These are some great ways to start teaching your children about Jesus. It will be the most important thing you ever teach them.

MTP Women...

The next meeting will be Monday, April 25 at 6:30pm. We will do two blessing boxes and our mission project will be snacks for Hospice. Our meal this month will be breakfast.

The May meeting will be May 23 at 6:30pm. Please mark your calendar and invite a friend to join us. This is a great time to enjoy fellowship with our Sisters in Christ.

Reminder - We are continuing to collect monthly for items for Operation Christmas Child.

MTP Men...

Greetings from MTP Men. Thank you to all who helped make our Sunrise Breakfast possible, this is a huge event in the life of our church and it would not be possible without the hard work and dedication of a lot of MTP people.

On May 15th we will be honoring our graduates with lunch in the banquet room at noon.

As a new fundraiser we are selling raffle tickets for a pistol and a shotgun, please see Trent, Joe or Bill for tickets and the cost of a ticket is $10. We are also ironing out the details of hosting a Skeet Shoot which will probably happen in late August.

Respectfully submitted, Greg Moore

Murdoch operates and serves adults residing in all regions of North Carolina. They also have four specialty programs for children and adolescents also residing in all regions of North Carolina.

For many years Mt. Pleasant Church has supported the Murdoch Development Center Campership Program by collecting donations to support residents to attend various day or overnight camping activities. A change of scenery and a chance to travel to the zoo, a park, a museum, the beach, wherever the vacation takes them is something the residents look forward to.

The collection this year will be May 1st and May 8th. You can make your checks payable to Mt. Pleasant but please write Murdoch Campership Fund on the memo line. If donating cash, please write Murdoch Campership Fund on the outside of the envelope.
