People of the Cross

What is happening in the world? Just as goodness is becoming more and more its true self, so evil too is becoming more and more what it actually is. The lines between good and evil are not drawn between parties or races, classes or genders, but runs straight through every human heart. Some people you might have despaired for are emerging as trophies of grace. Some who claimed Christ in public profession are turning out to be horrendous workers of evil. And whatever we truly are, the Day is fast approaching when whatever THAT truly is shall be made manifest. (1 Corinthians 3:13).

"Brothers and sisters, be followers together of me, and mark those who walk so, as your examples. For many walk, of whom I have told you, and now tell you again with tears, that they are enemies of the Cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in the things for which they should be ashamed, who mind earthly things" (Philippians 3:17-19).

After knowing even a small bit of what Jesus suffered in order to save us, is there anything more horrible than to come to the end of this life and find that He considers you, not only an indifferent fool towards His sacrifice, but an actual enemy against it? And who might be such an enemy? Not just the ungodly, but some inside the Church! They parade the Cross as their symbol of faith and yet live and teach others to live as if the sin which Jesus died to redeem us from is no sin at all. To them, Jesus is not Lord or Savior because there is nothing from which to be saved; there is no wrath to come; grace means freedom to live in the very sin Jesus came to wash away by His shed blood. They don't speak of the blood, the Cross, sin, or the wrath to come because it might upset someone.

False prophets promising thousands of 'nominal' believers easy soft words actually make their hearers enemies of the Cross. How? By claiming to be of the Cross while being ashamed of its very essence! Ashamed? Yes. We often seek to hide and distance ourselves from what we are ashamed of. The message of the Cross is challenging and costly, so many are ashamed of the Cross.

More and more the Atonement of Christ is under attack, not by atheists, but by pseudo-believers, who deny the very core of the gospel and teach in the name of 'love,' when all the while they are denying the Ultimate Act of Love.

"You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its savor...it is good for nothing but to be cast out and trampled under the foot of men." (Matthew 5:13)

It is this denial of the Cross and all it means that rendered the Church of the past 30 plus years too weak to prophetically declare truth with love in the face of evil power. As we denied the gospel we became more and more taken over by the rising flood of 'culture' until we drowned in attempts to be relevant.

We bent over backwards not to offend people, with no concern whether we might be offending Almighty God. We fell so deeply into the very sins of the culture we dared not rebuke it, and when we did speak out against evil our words fell weakly to the ground and we looked like self-interested hypocrites seeking our own welfare.

“Buy from Me gold tried in the fire...” (Revelation 3:18)

Jesus has a treasury of pure gold which He purchased in the fire of His Cross. He invites us to come and purchase it. How? By renouncing the ‘cross-less’ false religion of this current culture and entering into ‘the fellowship of His sufferings...’ (Philippians 3:8-10). Out of such self-renunciation, there is a place of self-sacrifice upon which God can pour the fire of cleansing. The place of sacrifice is the place of power. God will not entrust world transforming power to those who desire the world. But to those who are against the world for the world’s sake, who deny self and take up their cross, He will pour out fire-tried gold, a reality which the world may hate and reject, but they will first have to respect its validity, for it has been ‘tried in the fire; and purchased with sacrifice.

“Why do the nations so furiously rage together and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord and His Messiah...He that dwells in Heaven shall laugh.” (Psalm 2:1-4)

“The kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Messiah, and He shall reign forever and ever.” (Revelation 11:15)

“All power is given to me in heaven and earth. Go therefore into all the earth and teach all nations...” (Matthew 28:18-19)

Jesus Christ has risen from the dead and is seated at the right hand of the Majesty on High. He sits there NOW. He is Lord over all nations NOW. The battle going on here is not to decide who will reign; that is settled. The only decision is who will be saved by His reign and who will be condemned by it. The puny rulers of the earth will scream for the rocks and mountains to fall on them and hide them from the anger of the Lamb (Revelation 5). We are called to live as people who are children of that King and act as watchmen who understand the precarious position of the rulers of the earth.

Time for choosing is passing swiftly. Let’s stop acting as if this world is the ultimate value or the ultimate authority. If we are thinking clearly and accurately we will never compromise with evil or be intimidated by the governments of men. We will humbly tremble for them, contemplating the horrible destiny they are choosing, and because we “understand the terror of the Lord we will speak boldly to persuade men.” (2 Corinthians 5:11).

In Christ,
Pastor Tim

Mt Pleasant Elder’s Update

June 2022

The elder team has recently completed two sessions of our small group leader training. We had over 30 people attend the sessions and had good discussions about the elder’s role in supporting the leaders, sought to establish a good rapport between the leaders and the elder team, discussed the resources available for small group studies, and considered some helpful tactics in creating community amongst the groups.

One of the challenges that the elder team faces is to evaluate resources that are being used in our group studies throughout the church. It is our goal to flush out studies that go against our core values, but most importantly, that are not in line with the Bible. The following points were made in our training to listen carefully to anything an author or presenter says about...

- any deviation of salvation any other way but through Jesus
- works-based salvation
- prosperity-oriented teaching
- overly emotional teaching that has a thin focus on Scripture and/or God
- ideas that may be “radially altered” to cater to today’s church,
- minimizing or ignoring sin and repentance
- overly interested in mystical ideas, strange or unusual prayer
- hyper-focused on spirituality/demons/gods
- overly interested in prophecy or end-times, and
- minimalizing any part of Scripture (OT vs NT)

These are principles that we are using to qualify studies. The elders are very interested in what is being studied and welcome the opportunity to evaluate and discuss the materials available to present to small groups. This will continue to be on the front-burner for the foreseeable future and we look forward to growing our small groups and offering support to congregation as they learn more about the Bible and Jesus Christ.

We learn in 1 Timothy 3:16-17 that: “All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” Whether that is in small groups, family Bible studies or reading Scripture, our prayer is that our congregation is growing in faith. Please let us know if we can be of any assistance in recommending materials for study.

Feel free to reach out to us in person, via email or phone.

The vision for Mt. Pleasant's Women Offering Worship (WOW) is to equip women who are on the journey of reflecting Christ.

Worship is revealed in different ways, and we celebrate the uniqueness in how God has designed us. We also recognize how easy it is to allow daily life to interfere with a heart that has a posture of worship.

How to teach your children to PRAY!

First: Teach your kids to be thankful and when they are praying to make sure they thank God for all of His blessings.

Pray: start first by praying yourself for God to guide you to help teach your child to pray. Start a prayer routine with your child. "Tell them to talk to Jesus just like talking to a friend. Tell Him what is in your heart."

Pray with and for your children:

Let them see you pray and hear you pray for them. You are the one they learn from.

Pray for others:

Let them know how important it is to not only pray for us but to pray for others. Teach them how to pray for others and how to ask friends and family if they can pray for them.

Pray for our church:

Let them know how important it is to pray for our church, our Pastors and our congregation. We always want God to be at the center of everything. Praying for the church is a wonderful way to show the power of prayer.

Prayer is so important in our lives and should be so important in our kids lives. Be the example of prayer for your children. They are watching everything you do.

MTP Women

The Mt. Pleasant Women will sponsor a Bake Sale at the Car Palooza on June 25, from 11:00 – 3:00 pm. We will have baked goods, both cut to eat as a snack at the event and whole cakes, pies, etc. for sale. Anyone in the church who would like to contribute a baked item for the bake sale is encouraged to do so. The latest Mt Pleasant Cookbooks will be on sale at the event for $10.00, as well as several different flavorings for baking at $2.00 per bottle.

Remember the monthly items collected for Operation Christmas Child – The item for June will be small toys, small stuffed animals and puzzles. In addition, you can also provide other items that will work for the shoeboxes. We will be collecting items all year long and will put together boxes in early November.

The next Women’s meeting will be June 27 at 6:30 pm. We will have a covered dish meal. Our mission project will be Father’s Store House and we will do one Blessing Box. Items that are needed at Father’s Store House are new or gently used kitchen items, bed, bath or kitchen linens, paper products and staple food items. The need is always great and we want to be the hands and feet of God.
