Easter Was The Greatest Miracle Of All

Without Easter the apostle Paul says our faith is useless.

For if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised either. And if Christ has not been raised, then all our preaching is useless, and your faith is useless. And we apostles would all be lying about God—for we have said that God raised Christ from the grave. But that can't be true if there is no resurrection of the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:13-15.

Our whole faith and the power behind everything we believe and teach are wrapped up in the fact that Jesus died, then rose from the grave. If there is no Easter, no resurrection, we are hopeless.

But Easter did happen, and because of that, we can place our trust in God's promises. Jesus overcame death and established Himself as having authority over all things. That means, when Jesus makes a promise, we can believe Him.

There are 10 Promises we have because of Easter

1. We who are believers will have immortality.

"Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life, but whoever rejects the Son will not see life, for God's wrath remains on them" (John 3:36).

2. I don't have to be a slave to sin.

"It is for freedom that Christ has set us free. Stand firm, then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery" (Galatians 5:1).

3. I am a new creation.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!" (2 Corinthians 5:17).

4. I don't have to fear.

"There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear, because fear has to do with punishment. The one who fears is not made perfect in love" (1 John 4:18).

5. I don't have to worry.

"Cast all your anxiety on Him because He cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7).

6. God wants good things for me.

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose" (Romans 8:28)

7. I am not alone.

"Keep your lives free from the love of money and be content with what you have, because God has said, never will I leave you; never will I forsake you." Hebrews 13:5

8. God wants to hear my requests.

"Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; the one who seeks finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened" (Matthew 7:7-8).

9. One day all things will be made right

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me so that you also may be where I am" (John 14:3).

10. God loves me.

"For God so loved the world that He gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life" (John 3:16).

All of these promises may seem hard to believe. The good news is the one who promised has proven Himself trustworthy. Every Easter, we are reminded that nothing is too big for God to handle.

The greatest promise of all: Even though we deserved death and should be eternally separated from God, Jesus came to Earth and gave His life up so we could live with Him forever. Jesus chose to reconcile all of us who believe and He was willing to face death and suffering to do so. This Easter, let's celebrate like we have a God that refused to leave us on our own. He is a God of great promises, a God who is faithful. Let's celebrate this miracle and invite everyone we know to experience it with us.

In Christ,
Pastor Chris

Greetings Mt. Pleasant Church from your Elder team. We hope you are enjoying the new sermon series Pastor Chris has been leading us through entitled, "Fake ID." In this series, we are being challenged to self-examine our lives as faithful followers of Jesus, versus just passing ourselves off as such by flashing a "Fake ID".

We are called as followers of Jesus to study and grow in His Word. One of the ways we do that is in fellowship and community with other believers. In his letters, Paul wrote:

1 Thessalonians 5:11: Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

Hebrews 10:24-25: And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, 25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

One of the ways we can build relationships while growing deeper in the Word is through small groups. Small groups are a great way to get together with others in our church family to study the Word and do life together, supporting each other through the highs and lows, trials and celebrations of life. Biblically, we were not meant to do life alone. A support system of other believers you can call on is vital to living a successful Christian life.

Thank you to everyone that completed the small group survey, the insights were very helpful. The Elder team has been examining our current small group structure and how we can provide additional small group opportunities. You will be seeing more information about our current small groups, and we encourage everyone to visit several to find one that is right for you. If you have questions about small groups or about a specific small group, please reach out to one of the Elders or the small group leader. If you have ideas about a new small group, reach out to one of the Elders. Lastly, if you are in a small group, ask others if they are attending a small group and if not, invite them.

We are called to encourage each other and build each other up. Get connected to a small group and be in fellowship with other believers.

Please reach out to us in person, via email or phone.

GLOW: A 2-Week Series from The Gospels on Easter.

SERIES OVERVIEW:

Easter Sunday is supposed to be a time of joy and celebration (cue the candy, pastel eggs, and sunshine). But before Easter Sunday could happen, Good Friday had to happen first. Before the joy, hope, and light of Jesus' resurrection could be experienced, Jesus and his followers first had to experience some deeply frightening, painful, hopeless, and dark moments. Maybe you've had moments like that before too. This Easter, whether you feel like you're living in the darkness of Good Friday or the light of Easter Sunday, there's something new Jesus wants to help you discover about his death and resurrection. In this two-week series from the Gospels, we'll discover Easter isn't just something that happened 2,000 years ago — it's something that's still happening today. We'll discover Jesus is with us in the darkness, and Jesus is the light in the darkness.

March has been a challenge with the illnesses going around. Our teachers and families are the BEST – going above and beyond to make sure classes are covered and volunteers are where they need to be. Thank you!!!!

We were delighted to help with the Light Up the Night swag bags, and contributed colouring pages to brighten our guests' evening.

This month, we also sent our yearbook off to print! Jessica Farrar and our Yearbook class worked diligently to bring a beautiful book that surpassed expectations. We cannot WAIT to have it in our student's hands!

This time of year is also good for changes – this is my last session at The Point. I am grateful for all the Lord has done and will continue to do. I pray for His blessings upon the co-op and MTP. I ask you to pray for the co-op's direction and next leadership.

The April meeting will be April 28. At this meeting we will have a plant sale to earn money for our mission projects. We will also do a blessing box.

The women provided desserts for the Wildlife Banquet, and cut the desserts used at the meal.

Looking further into the year, we will serve a meal at CCM in October.

You are always invited to join us for a meeting. In addition to our mission projects and other activities, it is a time of a good meal and fellowship. For more information contact Tammy Dyles, or the church office and Felecia will get your information to Tammy.

Enjoying spring.

MTP Men's Group

We did not have our regular meeting in March. Couple things of note. Things are shaping up nicely for Wildlife Banquet and Auction sale to be held April 5th. We are committed to providing meals at the Cooperative Community Ministry (CCM) on the second Thursday of each month. This is a wonderful opportunity for families and small groups to serve together and share hope with those experiencing homelessness.

If you're interested in helping prepare and serve a meal at CCM, please reach out to Brenda Flack or any member of the Missions Committee.

The Mission Committee was honored to support Jessica O'Hara and Davy Owens on their recent mission trip to Costa Rica with Central America Missions. While there, they shared the gospel and provided much-needed supplies, including groceries, clothing, medication, Bibles, and Christian tracts. Their outreach extended even further as they set up an eye clinic, ministered to the elderly, visited a daycare center and a drug rehabilitation center, and helped paint a local church. Because of your generosity, lives were touched, and communities were strengthened. Thank you for making missions like this possible!
